

2012 DIL Report

As observed last year when the first Hoopoe book was distributed in the schools, the students instantly gravitate towards these books because of the attractive cover and the brightly colored pictures.

Some comments from DIL Paradise School, Orangi Town the first batch of students who read the 2 new titles:

The Clever Boy and the Terrible, Dangerous Animal:

Afreen Mushtaque (VII):

“I read the story book called “The Clever boy and the Terrible, Dangerous animal”. It is a very interesting story and the funny part of this story is that the villagers were very cowardly, they were scared of watermelons.”

Noureen Ayoub (VI) and Atif Rasheed (VI):

“This story gives us the lesson that we should not be afraid of anything. We should be like the brave boy.”

Mehak (VI):

“This story introduced the interesting sides of the human characters in an amazing way.”

The Old Woman and the Eagle:

Komal Saeed (VI):

“We like this story because we learn from it that we must have knowledge so that no one can fool us.”

Ramzan (VI) Asma Rasheed (IV) Kiran Asif (V):

“We enjoyed this funny story and learnt the lesson that we should have knowledge about everything, also we should not catch the birds, we should free them. We want to read more story books like this one.”
